

Stepp'n Out 'n' About

Published by R & L Edwards (LREDANCE) lredance1@gmail.com

March 2023

Well the time has come, and probably about time you might say, that we edited another newsletter, unfortunately until now we have had almost nothing to share with you, until now that is.

It appears that Dancers are at last coming back to dancing and in good numbers, everywhere we go the message is the same, more people on the floors. At the Altona dance this last weekend we saw better numbers than we have for many months and each week the trend is more than noticeable.

Even many of the smaller country dances are seeing the same trend. It appears that people have decided to get out 'n' about, take the risk, to enjoy doing what they like to do best, even though the covid pestilence is still with us. the opportunity to dance is just too great to resist.

The other most noticeable thing is watching people dance, well, trying to as many of those now returning seem to have forgotten some of the sequences, still, they persist and remember quickly.

As for ourselves, along with many others we are off to Canberra next week for their Autumn Dance Festival and it is only the start, dance workshops, social dancing and great food as well as the company, and some time to explore the area.

A little news from Canowindra.

Hello Lesley and Russell

At this present time we have the Canowindra Balloon Festival festival from the 12th to 15 th April.

There will be a street parade that the dancers are included in, it will be followed by dancing in the Canowindra Services on the Saturday afternoon.

We will be also dancing our regular Sunday dance from 2pm to 6pm at the Services club.

We are having our 12 hour dance on 25th June.

Barry Whitty will be doing music the 1st 6 hours then Phil Redenbach the 2nd 6 hours they are our regular musicians. Doug Moorby, Dubbo will be MC. for the day.

So much going on here at the moment, we are having an St Patrick's day at the club then caring that through to our dance on the Sunday.

We had 42 dancers at our Sunday dance which we were pleased with as our numbers have been consistently 26 to 32.

It is such hard work as you would know trying to keep people to keep coming.

Thanking you both for all your help.
Gail

Another exciting aspect is that the Rutherglen Dance Festival is being conducted the following weekend, so there will be for many the opportunity take time and slowly amble through the hills taking in the sights before arriving in Rutherglen to start doing it all over again, and this time we, Lesley and I, as well as our small band of helpers will be your hosts. Do we have the energy?

John and Andrea will be with us at both events as will Patti and Tony. What an opportunity, all this excitement down here in the south.

This issue has a host of information from a wide spectrum of areas. Just recently we were asked by a dance couple as to where they would find a dance in the area they were visiting as there was nothing known by the local tourism office about such activities, we told them where to find a dance or two and a new friendship was formed. We are inviting you as dancers and dance organisers to share information about dancing in your areas, in this way we can get the message out there that, hey, if you're travelling through the area why not stroll in for a dance and get to know us.

Keep Danc'n
Russ n' Les

And from Merimbula.

The Merimbula Uniting Church New Vogue Dance Group, in spite of bush fires and particularly Covid is, in our opinion anyway, thriving with good local attendances, top music and great bonhomme. Working hard to get some new and slightly younger members but so far, to no avail.

We are a non denominational group and we love to sing if a popular piece of dance music is played. Probably a no-no in proper circles but I must admit I love to hear the 'choir' in full voice. It means the group is really enjoying themselves. However the quality of voice is highly doubtful.

While Covid is still a problem in our community we appear to have learned to live with it and there are no sanctions except self imposed by a very small number of people.

St Patricks Day falls on our Regular Friday Dance and our members have been challenged to wear something green and underwear does not count. Not even if it is shown. Weeeeellllll!!!!!!

Hoping to see some interesting outfits.

We have done a couple of 'flash dances' in recent times. This is where, in a reasonably significant and public spot somewhere in the main street some dance music suddenly starts up, a couple of our members get up and apparently totally unplanned, start to dance quickly joined by a number of our group and usually do five or six dances and so far to quite good crowds. Always with the permission of the local traders. And we even did some display dancing at the local Bega Show. Well received we were. (I am a bit of a star wars fan). I am now a bit out of breath so cheers for now.

"OLD TIME DANCING AT KYNETON"

MARCH 2023 NEWSLETTER

Hullo to everyone,

March is with us, bringing Autumn with it. We are moving along towards quarter way through the year, how time rushes by. We certainly need to make the most of each opportunity to get together and enjoy ourselves. Music, dance, laughter, fun and friendship are all so important to us emotionally, mentally, physically. As Old Time Ballroom dancers, we are so lucky to be able to spend time with a happy group of friends who all have a common interest in such a lovely social activity.

Our next dance at Kyneton is on Friday 17 March at St Mary's Hall, Hutton St., Kyneton, starting at 7.30pm and finishing at 11pm. Family Rhythm will provide the music. As this is St Patrick's Day, it will be an Irish theme, so get dressed up if you would like to, or just wear something green in your outfit. The cost of entry is $8.00, raffle tickets are $1.00 each. We would really appreciate it if you can bring a plate of supper to share, but ask that what you bring does not need heating or cooking, as we prefer not to light the oven. Bring your own water bottle, also a small torch to show you back to your car after the dance, as the bluestone gutters are quite steep and difficult to navigate at night. We would love to see you there on 17 March.

A special request from Margaret Lane to pass on a message from her, as follows –

"Margaret Lane invites her friends to celebrate her 70th birthday party with an Afternoon Tea Dance at Harcourt Leisure Centre on Sunday 26 March starting at 1pm. No presents needed but please bring a plate to share. Mobile 0409 021 424."

Music will be by JNB Productions – a riotous 50/50 program of rock'n'roll and familiar old time sequence dances, (Happy BIG 70 birthday, Margaret, from all at OTD@K. Have a wonderful special day.)

Looking ahead, the April OTD@K dance will be held on Sunday 16 April, from 1.30 – 5pm, at St Mary's Hall in Hutton St., Kyneton. Music will be by our terrific JNB Productions, always extremely well presented and easy to dance to. More about this next time. Entry cost $8.00 with raffle tickets at $1.00. We would love to see you there, so maybe you could make sure it is on your calendar or in your diary.

A reminder of other upcoming events, as follows – a busy month.

1. Russ & Les Edwards would like their Social Ballroom Dancing at Altona Sports Club passed on – Sundays 5th, 12th, 19th, 26th March and Saturdays 11th, 18th, 25th March – all from 5pm-9pm. $10.00 entry cost. Russ & Les provide the music at the Club Second Saturday monthly and First & Second Saturday monthly.

2. Hanna has asked to pass on to you that there will be a Dance at Maldon on Easter Thursday, 6 April, from 8pm-12pm, with Family Rhythm providing the music.

3. Marilyn Bulkeley has asked if I could let people know that there will be an Old Time Dance at Wesley Hill Hall, opposite the Albion Hotel in Duke St., Castlemaine on Easter Saturday, April 8 from 8pm to midnight. J&M Old Time Dance Band will provide the music. The entire proceeds from the evening will go to Castlemaine SES. Marilyn and Jim would love to see you there supporting their dance and the SES. (Contact Marilyn 0456 617 836)

4. Lorraine Murphy from Gordon (between Ballarat and Ballan) would like you to know that there is an Afternoon Dance at Gordon Public Hall, 1pm-5pm, on Sunday 16 April. Music by 'Gary with Alan's magic music'. Entry $10.00, please bring a plate to share. (Contact Lorraine 0425 787 884 or Cynthia 0408 078 323)

On Sunday 19 February, "Old Time Dancing at Kyneton" had a lovely afternoon dance with Rod McKenzie providing the music. There were 75 people present at what was a most enjoyable afternoon. (Steve and I had a lunchtime commitment and did not arrive at the dance until afternoon tea time. As we entered the hall, it was great to see so many people mixing and mingling, socialising and enjoying what appeared to have been a yummy country spread. It was particularly special to see quite a few people, who had not been at Kyneton for many months, back dancing.) A big thank you to all who attended and made the afternoon happy and memorable. Thank you to all who helped with the running of the dance and the serving of the afternoon tea. Your help is very much appreciated by the OTD@K team.

On Friday 3 March, the Maldon dance was held at Newstead Hall, which is a large square hall with a great floor. It is nice to see dances still happening there.

Steve and I attended and had a lovely evening dancing to Family Rhythm's music, with Garry on drums (he is not able to come to Kyneton due to work commitments). We had a very happy night – good dancing, great company, lovely supper, a most friendly atmosphere.

Thank you to Hanna and Ross for organising the Maldon dances, which are so successful – mostly at Maldon but sometimes at Newstead. Keep up the terrific work, Hanna.

Keep busy, keep laughing, have fun – most of all, keep dancing. See you on 17 March?? JW

NEW ZEALAND DANCE & TOUR Cont.

Wed 26th October 2022

Day 7

Start our day at 7.15 AM

Today we set out for about a 250 Kilometres drive north to Cape Reinga,

With a couple of stops along the way we continued along winding road, through orchards, avocado and olive plantations, enjoying the mountains and valleys views to the light house.

After a pleasant walk down to the light house on the tip of the island, where the two oceans meet, we walked back to the bus to enjoy a BBQ lunch at the beach. We continued on a short drive to the sands and dunes where some of us body boarded / surfed down them,

After riding the dunes

John, tumbled and almost missing his sun glasses came down laying on the grass, he couldn't miss the opportunity to make Amanda jealous by allowing Claire to wipe his feet clean, and, there is a video to prove it.

Everyone on board again for a drive on the 90 miles beach, "what a magnificent view".

Now heading back to our home away from home with stop for ice creams and other necessities, arriving at our accommodation around 6.30 PM for dinner and a quite night.

Thanks every one for another lovely day enjoyed by all.

Nilda

Dolphins, what dolphins? Now I see them

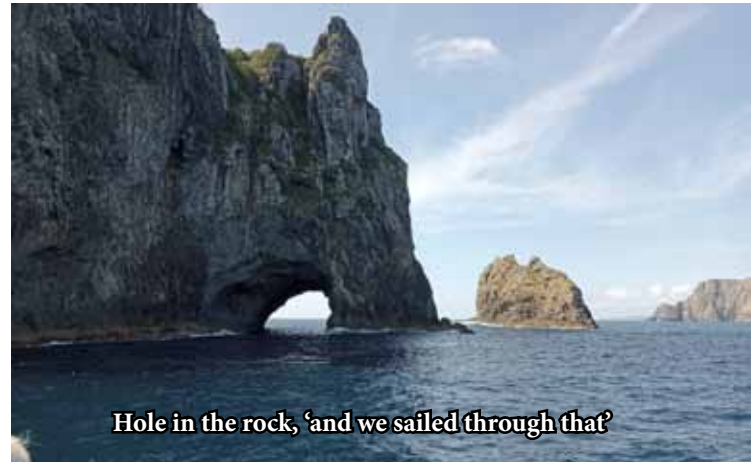

Day 8, 27.10.22

Day 8

Boat cruise through Bay of Islands made up of 88 islands.

14.4 degrees, 1/2m swell, water temp 18.2. aboard "Dolphin Seeker".

We had the company of sheer water birds & Bottle Nose dolphins as we cruised to the "Hole in the Rock", waters calm enough to go through the narrow space & admiring the rock walls.

Hole in the rock, 'and we sailed through that'

After lunch we attended a Māori cultural performance & listened to Māori way of life. A thought provoking talk on the treaty between Māori & England. We viewed a carved "waka", Māori ceremonial canoe, made from Kauri trees over 800 yrs old. The canoe requires 75 people to row the canoe.

The Ceremonial Canoe

Our evening meal was at Duke of Marlborough Hotel a very beautiful restored hotel, chandeliers, leather lounges & beautiful food, we finished the day off dancing in the hall of the oldest church in N.Z. Thank you to Lesley & Russell for organising the dance.

Memories of a wonderful dance and tour in New Zealand

Day 10

Our last day in New Zealand, we have been so lucky with the weather, it only rained twice and only when we were aboard the bus. but today is different, lots of rain and it was pouring.

Up early once again and off to the airport to say farewell to Claire and Christine, lots of cuddles and good byes as they were returning to Sydney, we had to hang around the airport for a few hours before our flight eventually departed.

So it was a time for us to shop a little, relax over a coffee or two and reminisce over what we had done during the past days.

Then it was aboard our flight to Melbourne and more goodbyes before collecting our cars and going our respective ways.

To all who came on our tour to New Zealand, it was good having you with us and we enjoyed your company immensely.

Next year we will include the South Island.

Ordering a Pizza in 2023

CALLER:

Is this Pizza Hut?

GOOGLE:

No sir, it's Google Pizza.

CALLER:

I must have dialled a wrong number, sorry.

GOOGLE:

No sir, Google bought Pizza Hut last month.

CALLER:

OK. I would like to order a pizza.

GOOGLE:

Do you want your usual, sir?

CALLER:

My usual? You know me?

GOOGLE:

According to our caller ID data sheet, the last 12 times you called you ordered an extra-large pizza with three cheeses, sausage, pepperoni, mushrooms and meatballs on a thick crust.

CALLER:

Super! That's what I'll have.

GOOGLE:

May I suggest that this time you order a pizza with ricotta, arugula, sun-dried tomatoes and olives on a whole wheat gluten-free thin crust?

CALLER:

What? I don't want a vegetarian pizza!

GOOGLE:

Your cholesterol is not good, sir.

CALLER:

How the hell do you know that?

GOOGLE:

Well, we cross-referenced your home phone number with your medical records. We have the result of your blood tests for the last 7 years.

CALLER:

Okay, but I do not want your rotten vegetarian pizza! I already take medication for my cholesterol.

GOOGLE:

Excuse me sir, but you have not taken your medication regularly. According to our database, you purchased only a box of 30 cholesterol tablets once at Chemistwhorehouse, 4 months ago.

CALLER:

I bought more from another Pharmacy.

GOOGLE:

That doesn't show on your credit card statement.

CALLER:

I paid in cash.

GOOGLE:

But you did not withdraw enough cash according to your bank statement.

CALLER:

I have other sources of cash.

GOOGLE:

That doesn't show on your latest tax returns, unless you bought them using an undeclared income source, which is against the law!

CALLER:

WHAT THE HELL!

GOOGLE:

I'm sorry sir, we use such information only with the sole intention of helping you.

CALLER:

Enough already! I'm sick to death of Google, Facebook, Twitter, WhatsApp and all the others. I'm going to an island without the internet, TV, where there is no phone service and no one to watch me or spy on me.

GOOGLE:

I understand sir, but you need to renew your passport first. It expired 6 weeks ago...

Welcome to the future
